

A

dotted line is 10% of the shortest chromosome, the localising limit

B

grey band is the 37 kb NIL interval on III; dot is the peak marker peak 12.716 Mb (red dotted). The distant partners that hold the interval open sit between r^2 0.51 and 0.78, so a cutoff above 0.78 collapses it.

C

